Description: The Bean Peaks trail system opened in May 2024. It was designed and built to be a “Gravity Flow” trail system for mountain bikers, but several of the trails are opened to hikers as well. The total out-and-back hike is 6 miles, with a gentle 450’ ascent through pine and oak forests. The hike uses 3 trails: Green Bean (0.9 mi), Mr. Bean (0.5 mi), and Limey Bean (1.6 mi). Trails are well marked and hard-packed. Be sure to keep to the trails where hiking is allowed.
