

TRAIL HEAD DIRECTIONS

Distance: Prescott to TH is 6.8 miles, incl. 1.6 miles dirt.
 From Courthouse Plaza, drive west out of Prescott on Gurley Street for 5.2 miles to a Y junction. On the way, Gurley St becomes Thumb Butte Road. Go past the Thumb Butte parking area (at 3.4 miles from Plaza). At the Y junction, go left on the dirt road signed Thumb Butte Loop Road. Continue along this road (FR 373) for another 1.6 miles to a T junction (this road is rough in places so go slowly). The T junction is by a large juniper, with FR 51 going left. The TH for trail 333 is on the left opposite the juniper – park so you don't block any of the roads.

Total loop hike is 4.5 miles (moderate).

TH elevation and high point is 6400 feet, low point 6100 feet
Description: The Honeybucket trail (#333) was completed early in 2017, a reroute of a social trail. Hike the loop counter clockwise. It's a pretty trail with good views, that winds thru the pines, dropping down to Butte Creek. From that point, you hike north, climbing up on the Prescott Circle Trail before looping back to #333. Many of the trails in this area were forest roads in the past (#322, #326, #327, #392).

PRESCOTT CIRCLE TRAIL
 Trails #322 & #392 and parts of #327 are segments of the Prescott Circle Trail. The Circle Trail is about 55 miles long and goes all around the City of Prescott. It was completed in mid-2015 (all but a two mile segment). For more info, purchase a copy of the Guide to the Circle Trail from the Highlands Center or the Prescott Chamber of Commerce downtown.
