Trial climbs up the canyon past Butterfly Springs

TRAILHEAD DIRECTIONS

Distance: Prescott to TH, 27 miles, all paved. Drive east on Hwy 89A toards Mingus Mountain. This is a curvy mountain road. Turn right on FR 104 at the very top of Mingus Mtn. Proceed on FR 104 for 0.9 miles to a hairpin turn with a dam on the left. Park on the left side of the road at the hairpin (Parking is very limited). Hike up to the dam via a trail on the left side of the wash. Near the base of the dam cross over the wash and over the right side of the dam, where you will find the beginning of the trail. Note the engraving in the concrete at the back of the dam, "J.J. 1956". The trail will cross the stream several times as you proceed up the canyon to the Northwest. Total hike is 2.7 miles (easy). There is lots of shade.

Recent logging activity has destroyed this trail junction and #358 going North. Watch carefully for the trail markers.
