

Call for Artists!

13th Annual Highlands Center Holiday Bazaar

The Highlands Center for Natural History's 13th Annual Holiday Bazaar and Fundraiser is now accepting submissions for artist vendors. There are 13 available indoor spaces for artists to sell their handmade wares. An additional 15 spaces may be available outdoors in The James Family Discovery Gardens weather permitting. The Submission Deadline is Friday, August 23, 2019. Artist selection and notification will be completed by Friday, August 30, 2019.

The Highlands Center Holiday Bazaar is a handmade holiday shopping destination and will feature nature-themed handcrafted goods from local artists in Central Arizona. The Holiday Bazaar will be open to the public on Saturday, November 2, 2019, 10am – 3pm at The Highlands Center for Natural History, 1375 S Walker Rd, Prescott, AZ 86303. Family friendly, FREE to park and attend.

This much anticipated event has drawn hundreds of people to the Highlands Center since its inception in 2007. The show was revamped last year, and drew in over 400 people! In addition to supporting local artists in the Prescott community, 20% of proceeds from each sale will benefit children's educational programs at the Highland Center for Natural History.

The Highlands Holiday Bazaar is an excellent opportunity for both emerging and established artists to showcase and sell their work at the beginning of the holiday season. As an open call, any local artist may submit, and there is no cost to apply. If selected, there will be a $20 space fee, and 20% of each sale will be donated to the Highlands Center. Artists will sell their artwork directly to customers. All artwork on display will be for sale. Space includes a 72"x 30" table and 2 chairs.

Who should apply? All handmade artists with nature themed/inspired work. Items made with natural materials, upcycled materials or nature themes are preferred.

Who should NOT apply? Any resale, food, multi-level marketing (such as Scentsy, Mary Kay, etc.), commercial vendors and mass produced (wholesale) goods are NOT ALLOWED.

Submission of application does not guarantee approval. Vendors will be selected based on space availability, category, quality and originality of product selection, and other select factors. Categories will be capped to avoid direct competition.

To Apply: Email highlands@highlandscenter.org by August 23th with a description of your art/medium along with up to 5 photographs. Please include your name (and/or business name), phone number, and price range.
